

Jeep Tour Serra da Lousã

From
160€

Description

Program 3h (half day): Guided tour in off-road vehicle with driver / guide through the places of greatest natural, human and cultural interest of the Serra da Lousã. It includes a visit to two Schist Villages of Lousã Mountain and Trevim (the highest point of Lousã Mountain), passing through places of rare beauty, such as century-old chestnut groves, deciduous and coniferous woods and breathtaking viewpoints.

6h Program (full day): Guided tour in an off-road vehicle with driver/guide through the most interesting natural, human and cultural sites of the Lousã mountain range. It includes a visit to four Schist Villages of Lousã mountain, Trevim (the highest point of Lousã mountain), Santo António da Neve and Neveiros Reais (former Royal Ice Factory of the 18th century) and the valley of Ribeira de Alge (one of the places in the mountain with more deer and roe deer), passing through places of rare beauty, such as centenary chestnut groves, deciduous and coniferous woods and breathtaking viewpoints.

Depending on the route (half day or full day) the organization will define the Schist Villages to be visited in each program, but they are usually the following Gondramaz (Miranda do Corvo), Aigra Nova (headquarters of the Tradições do Xisto Eco-Museum) and Aigra Velha (Góis) and Candal, Cerdeira or Talasnal (Lousã). The program may include lunch.

Duration: 3-6h.

Meeting point: variable, but as an example, we can set it at 9:30 am at Castelo da Lousã.
